Crime Analysis

A set of systematic, analytical processes directed at providing timely and pertinent information relative to crime patterns and trend correlations to assist the operational and administrative personnel in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention and suppression of criminal activities, aiding the investigative process, and increasing apprehensions and the clearance of cases. Within this context, Crime Analysis supports a number of department functions including patrol deployment, special operations, and tactical units, investigations, planning and research, crime prevention, and administrative services (budgeting and program planning). --Steven Gottlieb et al., 1994, "Crime Analysis: From First Report to Final Arrest."

Information and Intelligence received on criminal activity:

A marked increase in theft from auto cases continued into the month of March in the Northeast/eastern district of the town. This area borders the Town of Madison. Similar incidents occurred in the Madison district bordering Guilford. Separate crime analysis reports were generated during the weeks of high thefts in this area. In addition directed marked and un-marked patrol as well as surveillance took place on several shifts jointly with the Madison Police Department. The Branford Police department also assisted with equipment for this detail.

CTIC provided LEO intelligence during this month. Intelligence meetings were held with the Middlesex County Detective Association and the Shoreline Detectives in regard to on-going criminal activity in all our jurisdictions.

Sincerely,

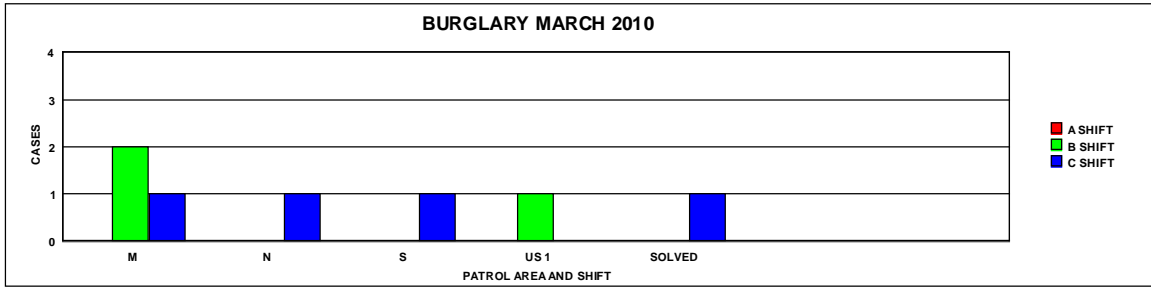

*Det. Sgt. John Dunn #64
Detective Unit Supervisor*
