Crime Analysis

A set of systematic, analytical processes directed at providing timely and pertinent information relative to crime patterns and trend correlations to assist the operational and administrative personnel in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention and suppression of criminal activities, aiding the investigative process, and increasing apprehensions and the clearance of cases. Within this context, Crime Analysis supports a number of department functions including patrol deployment, special operations, and tactical units, investigations, planning and research, crime prevention, and administrative services (budgeting and program planning). --Steven Gottlieb et al., 1994, "Crime Analysis: From First Report to Final Arrest."

SUBJECT: Crime Analysis Report May 2010

During the month of May 2010. The Guilford Police Department had the following Part 1 and selected Part 2 Crimes reported: Reference Appendix A for further information. This information was compiled via the AS400 system utilizing a query of all Part 1 Crimes and select Part 2 crimes from the computer database. A full review of each queried case file report was completed.

A user friendly interactive website is available through www.crimereports.com In addition to the information and graphs listed below. The crime reports link also catalogs and provides crime graphs and trends which allow officers and supervisors to better direct their patrols in preventing crime in the town. The crime reports site links all calls for service in the town.

The Guilford Police Department investigated 1168 cases for the month of May.

Burglary Cases

There were a total of (5) burglary cases filed, all were forced, one was commercial and four were residential. An arrest has been made in one of the cases, and a second arrest is pending warrant approval at court. None of the cases had a distinct pattern or modes operandi. Reference Appendix B for a graphic representation

Criminal Mischief Cases:

There were a total of (15) criminal mischief cases filed; two were mailbox damage, nine were private property, and four were public property. Five cases in total were solved, four of the solved cases involved juveniles that agreed to repair the damaged property. One case was solved via arrest. No suspect information was developed. The four cases that involved the juveniles did have a distinct pattern and modes operandi. Reference Appendix C for a graphic representation

Larceny Cases:

There were a total of (32) larceny complaints filed. A detailed examination of these cases revealed the following details: Of the thirty-six cases, (13) were solved. A total breakdown of the types of larceny cases are as follows: (1) theft from building, (15) theft from a motor vehicle, (14) general larceny cases, (1) cases involving stolen motor vehicles, and (2) shopliftings. During this period arrest were made in the theft from auto case that have been occurring in town over of the past several months. A suspect has been identified in the numerous cases affecting the B-2 area of town. A second suspect was arrested in the southern sectors of town as well. Reference Appendix D for a graphic representation

Robbery Cases:

None Reported

Arson Cases:

None Reported

Rape Cases:

In accordance with Connecticut General Statutes details of all sexual assault cases details remain sealed.

Murder Cases:

None reported

Information and Intelligence received on criminal activity:

Based on the arrests of subjects in the theft from auto cases, and the subsequent information uncovered as well as evidence recovered it is believed that the same suspect as well as several accomplices are responsible for a majority of the B-2 theft incidents. These cases are still being actively investigated at this time and additional information is being discovered daily. All information is being shared with the surrounding jurisdictions.

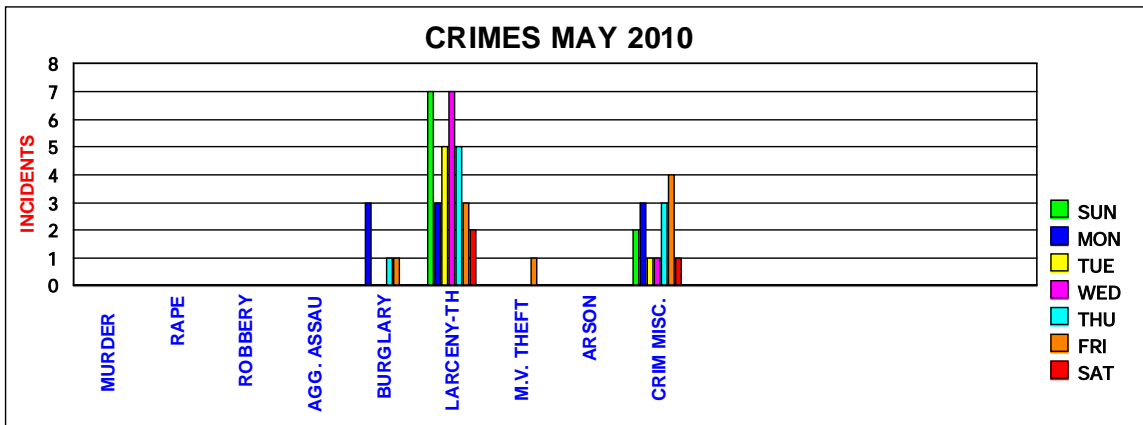

CTIC provided LEO intelligence during this month.

Intelligence meetings were held with the Middlesex County Detective Association and the Shoreline Detectives in regard to on-going criminal activity in all our jurisdictions.
Sincerely,

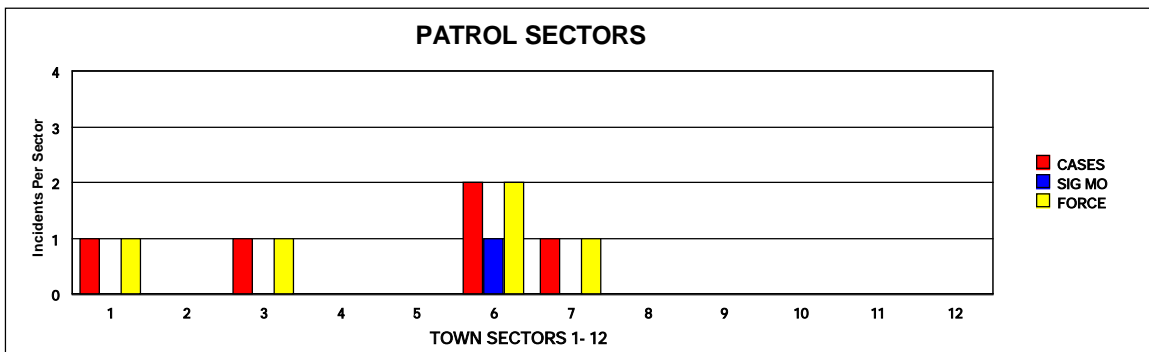

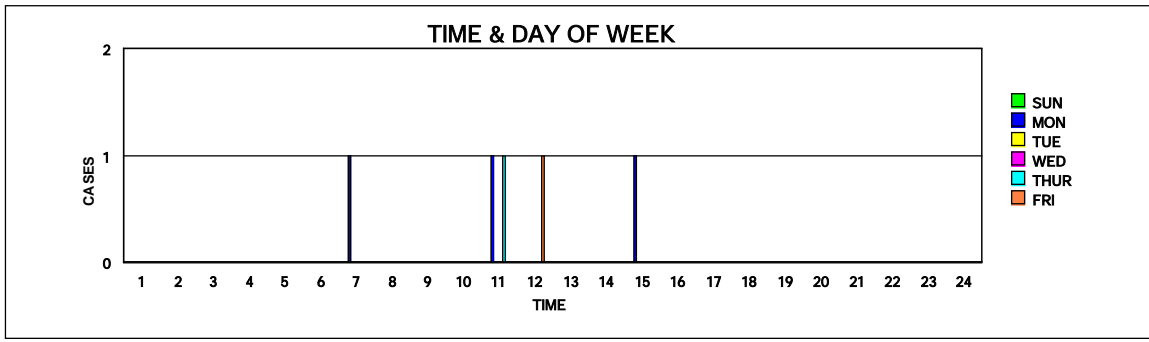

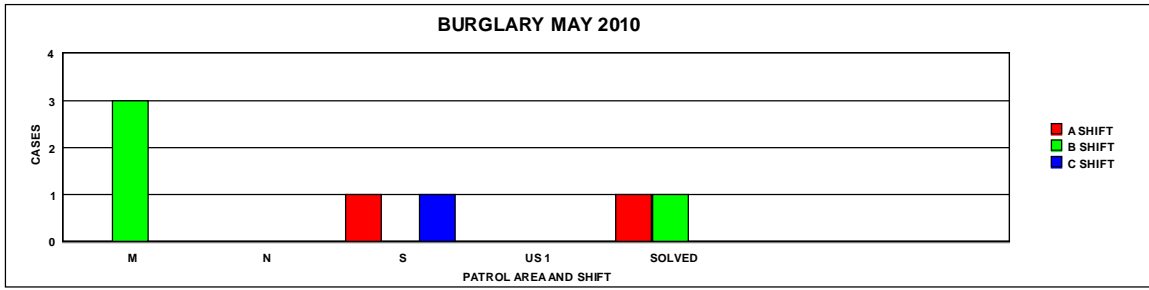

*Det. Sgt. John Dunn #64
Detective Unit Supervisor*
