Crime Analysis

A set of systematic, analytical processes directed at providing timely and pertinent information relative to crime patterns and trend correlations to assist the operational and administrative personnel in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention and suppression of criminal activities, aiding the investigative process, and increasing apprehensions and the clearance of cases. Within this context, Crime Analysis supports a number of department functions including patrol deployment, special operations, and tactical units, investigations, planning and research, crime prevention, and administrative services (budgeting and program planning). --Steven Gottlieb et al., 1994, "Crime Analysis: From First Report to Final Arrest."

Information and Intelligence received on criminal activity:

CTIC provided LEO intelligence during this month.

A separate crime analysis was completed on Shoreline Plaza. The analysis looked at thefts from all businesses in the plaza from January 2011 to May 2011. This report was forwarded to all patrol shifts. In addition the report was provided to loss prevention officers at Big Y. Mrs. Maureen Fuller/Big Y Loss Prevention H.Q. contacted the Guilford Police Department and thanked the department for their detailed analysis. She has directed the loss prevention manager of the Guilford Big Y to allocate appropriate personnel based on the high activity times and days of the week.

Intelligence meetings and legal update briefings were held at the New Haven County Investigative Briefing, as well as the Middlesex County Detective Association and the Shoreline Detectives in regard to on-going criminal activity in all our jurisdictions.

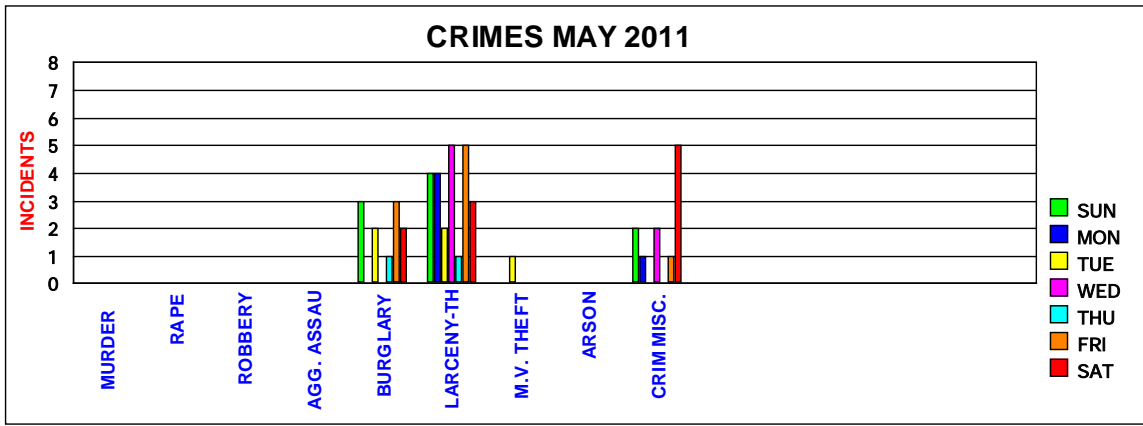

Sincerely,

Det. Sgt. John Dunn #64
Detective Unit Supervisor
