Warren H. Hyatt, Jr.
Deputy Chief of Police

With the Thanksgiving weekend upon us, Connecticut's Law Enforcement agencies intend to promote safe driving and increase the protection of all motorists. Law Enforcement Officials are out on Connecticut's roads enforcing the State Occupant Protection laws and issuing citations to those who are unbuckled.

Arrive to Thanksgiving Dinner Safe and Sound: BUCKLE UP- EVERY TRIP. EVERY TIME!

The Guilford Police Department, in their efforts to promote safe driving will be participating in the statewide "Click it or Ticket" campaign wave #55. Although occupant protection laws are enforced all year long by the Guilford Police Department, between the dates of November 19th and November 26th, focused enforcement of these violations will be a priority of Patrol Officers. Officers may use a variety of enforcement techniques from organized check points to roaming patrol, as well as the deployment of Guilford's low profile traffic unit.

It is the hope of the Guilford Police Department that this enhanced enforcement will stand as an opportunity to educate the public and remind our citizens of the dangers of operating or being a passenger in a motor vehicle without wearing a seatbelt. The Guilford Police Department would further like to remind the public that several Officers are Certified Child Safety Seat Technicians. Officers are available for installations on the first and third Wednesday of each month from 3:30 PM to 6:30PM.

The Guilford Police would like to remind all drivers and passengers of any motor vehicle to Please use their seatbelts at all times. Please help us reduce preventable injuries by simply remembering to "Click it or Ticket".
